III. STATEMENT OF FACTS

11. Plaintiff, JoAnna Deaver, was hired by Defendants in October 2011. Ms. Deaver remained employed by Defendants from October 2011 through January 2017. Ms. Deaver was hired into the customer service department, and after one year was promoted to Account Manager for the collections department. She held that position for one year and was then promoted to Team Lead for the collections department, where she remained until her employment was terminated.

12. During one or more weeks of Ms. Deaver’s employment with Defendants, Ms. Deaver worked in excess of 40 hours per week (overtime hours). During the period of Ms. Deaver’s employment, Defendants regularly failed to pay her for all the hours she worked. This included time Ms. Deaver spent performing her regular duties. Ms. Deaver was told that overtime was not permitted and was required to work off the clock if she needed more than 40 hours per week to complete her assigned duties.

13. During one or more weeks of Plaintiff's employment with Defendant wherein Plaintiff worked overtime hours, Defendant failed to pay Plaintiff one and one-half times her regular rate of pay for each overtime hour worked.

IV.
CAUSE OF ACTION – VIOLATION OF THE FLSA

14. The acts described above violate the Fair Labor Standards Act, which requires employers to compensate their employees for each hour of time spent working on behalf of the employer, and to pay their employees at time and one-half their regular hourly rates for each overtime hour worked. Defendants committed these violations willfully.

V.
DAMAGES

15. As a result of Defendants' unlawful conduct, Plaintiff is entitled to actual and compensatory damages, including compensation for the overtime hours per week for which Defendants refused to pay Plaintiff, but during which Plaintiff performed work for Defendants.

16. Section 216(b) of the FLSA provides that any employer who violates the statute shall be liable for unpaid compensation and an additional equal amount as liquidated damages. Therefore, Plaintiff seeks an award of liquidated damages in an equal amount as the amount of unpaid overtime pay.

17. Plaintiff further seeks liquidated damages as a result of Defendants' willful failure and refusal to pay overtime in violation of Section 7 of the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. § 207.

18. Plaintiff also seeks compensation for the out of pocket expenses and costs of court she will have incurred in this action, as well as reasonable and necessary attorneys fees. See 29 U.S.C. § 216(b).

VI.
PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, PREMISES CONSIDERED, Plaintiff requests that:

- a. The Court assume jurisdiction of this cause and that Defendants be cited to appear;
- b. The Court award damages to Plaintiff as specified above;
- c. The Court award reasonable and necessary attorneys fees, expert fees, and costs; and
- d. The Court award pre- and post-judgment interest at the highest rates allowed by law.

Plaintiff further prays for all such other relief as the Court may find proper, at law or in equity.

Plaintiff requests a trial by jury of all issues and facts in this case.

Respectfully submitted,
